HEARTS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE'S LET THEM PLAY ARTS FESTIVAL ROCKS BUNDU PARK

BY PETER MATANGIRA

The vibrant community of Bundu Park, Lydiate, was abuzz with creativity and joy on Saturday as the Let Them Play Arts Festival took over the Hearts Christian College High School grounds. The event was a resounding success, bringing together talented youngsters from various schools across the divide.

Children from LightHouse Institute, Chitungwiza, Mabelreign Girls High, Harare, Wisdom Oak, Norton, and the host school, Hearts Christian College, showcased their artistic prowess in a dazzling array of performances. The festival featured a diverse range of acts, including captivating choral and acapella renditions, soul-stirring mbira and marimba melodies, and energetic traditional and contemporary dance routines. The drama, poetry, and public speaking segments were equally impressive, with participants delivering powerful performances that left the audience in awe. The art and craft displays were a feast for the eyes, showcasing the creativity and skill of the young artists.

Special guest performer Coach Kuda stole the show with a breathtaking performance that left the crowd stunned.

The audience was thoroughly entertained, and the energy was palpable. The Let Them Play Arts Festival was more than just a showcase of talent – it was a celebration of creativity, community, and joy. The event provided a platform for young artists to shine, and it was wonderful to see them having so much fun in the fresh air and sunshine, far from the hustle and bustle of urban life. The event gave birth to a new brand of Masters Of Ceremonies, Mc Knowledge and Chantelle.

The organizers have promised to make the Let Them Play Arts Festival an annual event, and we can't wait to see what next year's edition has in store. Sincere thanks to the guest schools, hosts, and Coach Kuda for making this event a memorable one.
